DAWWI 3AL GHALAT

AWARENESS CAMPAIGN

himaya launched an awareness campaign “Dawwi 3al Ghalat” in a press conference, under the patronage of His Excellency Mr. Saad Hariri, on the 27th of September, at the Grand Serail, in the presence of Lebanese officials, celebrities, media representatives, and prominent Lebanese social figures.

Because child abuse happens every day behind closed doors, the campaign aims to bring light into the darkness, by triggering people to report cases of child abuse.

Glow-in-the-dark tattoos with the campaign’s logo “Dawwi 3al Ghalat” were distributed to all press conference’s attendees to put as a symbol of support, in addition to spreading the word by sharing on social media, the video produced by himaya following a cinema stunt, executed at a special fundraising screening of Capharnaüm movie, by renowned Lebanese director Nadine Labaki.

The stunt featured 10 kids of different ages and genders, representing any child who might be suffering of abuse.

Moreover, an emotional call for action TVC was launched on all Lebanese televisions, in line with the campaign’s objective.

DINNER FOR A CAUSE

As part of their efforts to secure a safe and non-violent environment for children on the Lebanese territory, himaya NGO held its annual fundraising dinner under the patronage of Prime Minister Saad Hariri at the Pavillon Beirut Seaside Arena, on Friday November 9th, in the presence of several political and social figures in addition to prominent media personalities.

The dinner featured entertainment acts, including a stunt by kids and an auction to help himaya raise money for the cause.
